

“InBici. La bici in Comune”: GENERAL REGULATION OF THE SERVICE

ART. 1 – OBJECT OF THE SERVICE

The service “InBici. La bici in Comune” was introduced in order to foster the population’s mobility (in particular of tourists) and promote the use non polluting means of transportation.

Thanks to this service you can freely rent bicycles: every user can take a bike from a specifically equipped bike-stand and use it according to the rules established in this regulation. Every user is obliged to give the bike back respecting the rules and the deadlines contained in this regulation.

The service is made up of: bike-renting stations (stations equipped with 2 bike-stands for 5 bikes, 5 bikes and a coverage leaning shed), managers of the renting stations (public offices or businesses which collect and give the keys back – one manager per station); bicycles (5 per every station); key to lock and unlock the bicycles.

ART. 2 – HOW TO ENROL FOR THE SERVICE

You can enrol for the service at any renting stations or at SpazioComune (Piazza Stradivari, 7). You must fill in and sign an enrolment form.

When you enrol for the service you will receive a numbered card which identifies every user.

If you want to use a bike you must be 18 years old. People under 18 can use the bike only if an other member of the family (who is over 18) sign the enrolment form.

ART. 3 – HOW TO USE THE SERVICE, RULES FOR THE USER

You must ask the station’s manager for the key to unlock the bike. If you want to have the key you must show your identity document and your numbered enrolment card.

People who, according to the station’s manager, are psychophysically altered could be denied the bike. The user of the bike must sign the enrolment form. With his/her signature the user declares to respect the following rules:

1. the bike must be used only in the territory of Cremona Municipality. You can not transport it by any other means of transportation;
2. the bike must be put back in the same bike stand where it was taken and in the same conditions;
3. you must immediately communicate to the station’s manager any bike’s malfunctions;
4. you must lock the bike with its anti-theft cable when you leave the bike temporarily unattended;
5. you can use the bike from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

If the user uses the bike up to 7:30 p.m. and beyond:

If the station’s manager business is closed the user must take the bike to the Local Police Headquarters (Piazza Libertà) and then pay the fine established in the following article;

if the station’s manager business is open, please give him/her the key back.

If the station’s manager business who gave you the key closes before 7:30 p.m., you must reach other businesses of the same renting station and give the bike back.

6. the user must use the bike respecting the rules of the road and in an safe and careful way;
7. the user does not own the bike;
8. the user must not give other people the bike or let other people ride it. The user is responsible for the bike s/he rented;
9. the numbered card can not be given to anybody, not even temporarily.
10. the user can not alter the mechanical part of the bike.

ART. 4 – FINES

If the bike’s user does not respect the rules of the previous article, s/he will have to pay Cremona Municipality the following fines and compensate the biggest damage s/he provoked.

The bike’s user must respect the rules of the previous article and the following indications:

- a) if you lose the key of the anti-theft cable of the bike you will have to pay € 30,00. This is the cost of the key and of the anti-theft cable;

b) if you abandon the bike out of its bike-stand without its anti-theft cable you will have to pay € 250,00 (Cremona Municipality must go and get the bike).

c) the user must pay the damage s/he provoked using in a not careful way the mechanical system and/or other parts of the bike (equipment included).

ART. 5 – OTHER DUTIES – RESPONSABILITIES

The bike was stolen.

I) You put it back but you didn't close it using the anti-theft cable. In this case you must report the theft to the Local Police, Carabinieri or Questura (provincial headquarters of the police force). Please remember that you must present a copy of the report to Cremona Municipality and give the Municipality the entire value of the bike when it was stolen together with a fine of 200,00 euros;

II) You put it back and you closed it using the anti-theft cable: you must report the theft to the Local Police, Carabinieri or Questura (provincial headquarters of the police force) and give Cremona Municipality a copy of the report together with the key of the anti-theft cable; on the contrary, you must give the Municipality the entire value of the bike when it was stolen and a fine of 200,00 euros.

The value of the bike when it was stolen will be defined by Cremona Municipality.

In any cases, Cremona Municipality is not responsible for:

A) damages and harms of any kinds suffered by the bike's user or provoked to other subjects (people, things or animals) because of a misuse of the service not in line with this Regulation;

B) loss, destruction, theft or robbery of objects/animals which are on the bike.

The user is the only person responsible for the bike when s/he is using it. The municipality of Cremona is not responsible for any kinds of administrative violations related to the use of the bike, i.e. violations of the rules of the road (with its changes and integrations), violations of the Implementation Regulation (with its changes and integrations) and/or violations of other legal measures, regulations or administrative measures. When the user is using the bike, s/he is the only person responsible for any damages provoked to other subjects.

ART. 6 – DISPUTES – PLACE OF JURISDICTION – FINAL REMARKS

The place of jurisdiction for any kinds of disputes arising between Cremona Municipality and the user will be Cremona.

The general regulation for the use of the service will be published on the website of Cremona Municipality. If you want to read it, please go to SpazioComune (piazza Stradivari, 7) or to any renting stations.
